Your step by step guide to… Applying to university in Australia

1. Ensure you meet all requirements
   - You are likely to need:
     - An up-to-date passport
     - An English language proficiency qualification
     - Proof of how you will be funding your studies

2. Find a course and select your universities
   - Pick a course you are passionate about
   - Certain states limit the number of universities you can apply to
   - Be selective about where you want to study

3. Work out how you want to apply
   - Directly through the university’s website
   - Through a local university
   - Through an external agent

4. Take your English language exam
   - Pay around AU$300
   - Revise and stay calm
   - Keep evidence of test results

5. Send off applications
   - Ensure you meet all
   - Check any fees
   - May be required to pay fees
   - May want to write and attach CV or covering letter
   - Wait...
   - Accept your offer
   - Get your Confirmation of Enrolment (CoE)

6. Apply for your visa
   - Apply directly through the Australian immigration website
   - Pay the AU$550 fee
   - Need the following evidence:
     - CoE
     - Current passport
     - English language proficiency test results
     - Financial proof you can fund your studies
     - An Australian accepted health insurance that covers your stay in the country
     - Criminal record verification results
     - Usually take around 4 weeks to process
     - You may be required to go to interview

7. Start planning your journey
   - You can arrive up to 90 days before your course begins
   - Organise accommodation
   - Book planes/trains etc

8. Arrive in Australia to begin your studies
   - Keep all documents on you for immigration
   - Celebrate!

Find a course and select your universities

Ensure you meet all requirements

Work out how you want to apply

Send off applications

Apply for your visa

Start planning your journey

Arrive in Australia to begin your studies